

As a small association of electrical contractors, I would like to request that you re-consider the onerous conditions being imposed on associations who regularly use fax machines to communicate with members. You have received many comments which provide in-depth reasons for the request, so I will not replay those here. I just wanted you to know that another association of volunteers will be harmed by its inability to communicate with our members--thanks to my government.